

McGill and Partners adds liability and motor to treaty reinsurance offering

London, 20 March 2023: McGill and Partners, the independent specialist insurance and reinsurance broker, has appointed Grange Turner as a Partner in its treaty reinsurance team.

Grange brings a wealth of long tail casualty experience to McGill and Partners having worked in the reinsurance market as a liability and motor specialist for more than 30 years. He joins from Willis-Gallagher Re where he spent ten years heading client teams for a range of prestigious UK and international insurers. Grange was also responsible for leading the casualty and motor practice groups.

Grange's arrival adds specialist liability and motor knowledge to McGill and Partner's treaty team, as well strengthening the current offering through his relationships ranging from start-ups through to publicly quoted household-name insurance companies.

Angus Milgate, Head of Treaty Reinsurance at McGill and Partners said: "We are delighted to welcome Grange to the treaty team at McGill and Partners. He has considerable experience and is highly regarded within the industry. His expertise within liability and motor further strengthens our treaty offering and builds on our bespoke approach. He is another fantastic addition to the treaty team."
